

— Short tour path (around 1 hour)

— Long tour path (around 2 hours)

— Wheelchair-accessible tour

■ Buildings in the grounds before 1945

■ Buildings in the grounds after 1945

■ Markings of the sites of demolished buildings

■ Former prisoners' barracks

■ Original fence posts

... Reconstructed fence posts

① Text display board

Ⓜ Bus stop

Toilets can be accessed during the opening hours of the exhibitions. They are located in the buildings with the following numbers (see key to map): 5, 12, 14, 16, 21.

1. Foundations of the former camp nursery
2. Foundations of the first monument erected in 1953
3. Monuments to groups of victims and memorial stones for individual victims
4. International Monument
5. House of Remembrance
6. House made of pre-fabricated concrete slabs
7. Canal and port basin
8. Additional exhibition at the former brickworks: "Labour and Extermination: Concentration Camp Prisoners as Slave Labourers in Brick Production"
9. Complementary exhibition at the remains of the prison building erected in 1970 and demolished in 2006: "Penal Institutions and Concentration Camp Memorial: Documentation of a Discrepancy"

10. Clay pit and tipper wagons
11. Former commandant's house
12. Research exhibition at the former SS garages: "Posted to Neuengamme Concentration Camp: The Camp SS" Visitors' archive
13. Former SS main guard station and watchtower
14. Main exhibition at the former prisoners' blocks 21–24 (later 25–28): "Traces of History: Neuengamme Concentration Camp and its Post-War History"
15. Remains of the prison building constructed in 1949 (demolished in 2003)
16. Centre for Historical Study, archive, library and administration (former prisoners' blocks 1–4)

17. Parade ground (reconstructed in 2002/2004)
18. Additional exhibition at the former Walther factory: "Mobilisation for the Wartime Economy: Concentration Camp Prisoners as Slave Labourers in Armaments Production"
19. Special exhibitions
20. Foundations of the former "detention bunker" (the camp's prison)
21. Servicepoint/information and registration
22. Former ironworking forge
23. Commemorative plaque at the site of the crematorium, which was demolished in 1947
24. Historical Reichsbahn wagon and reconstructed railway connection (camp railway station)
25. Jean-Dolidier-Weg
26. Coach park